have made to your Government before replying to your last letter. But I observa that you hove pointment of a Commission. That proposal is made in the following terms : Her Majesty Government are ready to comment to the appointment of a Commission to which shall be referred all claims arising during the late givil war which the two Powers shall agree to refer to the commissioners." There are I conceive many claims upon which the two Powers would agree that they were fair subjects of investigation before Commissioners. But I think you must perceive propose to refer claims arising out of the anotures made by the Alabama and Shenandock to the Commissioners, the snewer of bor Mojesty's Government must be, in consistency with the whole argument I have maintained, in conformity with views entertained by your Government tormer times. I should be obliged, in chawer to such a proposal, to suy. " For any acts of he Majesty's subjects committed out of their jone diction, and beyond their control, the Government of her Majesty are not responsible." I should eny further that the appointment of a Dommissinn for such purpose would not be consisten with any practice haund among bivilised pations and that it is a principle well known and well anderstood that no nation is responsible for the nate of its citizens committed without ite diction and out of the reach of its control should have cleared up this point before, but thought that the words "which the two Power shall agree to refer to the Commissioners' wink put an end to any doubt upon the subject .- I am
